Additional information:

Jackie has an adult son and an adult daughter. Her grandmother and her grandmother's sister (French Canadians) homesteaded the farm in North Dakota in 1906 that Jackie's brother still farms today. Jackie's soul is fed and her heart sings with joy when she can share the great outdoors with friends! She is "a bit of an artist when it comes to woodworking and photography". She loves building furniture, designing well functioning living space, and is always looking at things to see how she can make it better.
